READ YOUR TICKET!

The Buzzards are Awake-Hawks Watch Them!

In three hours after the tickets to be ter of our informants, we would be disused by the Democratic and Conserva-tive voters, on Tuesday, were issued on Saturage morning, the Radical committee issued a fac-simile of them, with the exception of placing D. A. Nunn's name for that of Dr. Leftwich. This shows how the rascals are working, and what means they intend to use to deceive

Let every man read his ticket carefully before he votes it, and, above all things, examine the tickets that he gives to his named Wilson, by a party of fifteen or plored voters with the most severe serntiny. Watch sharp!

After being relieved of their prisoner these gentlemen, Messra, Gailin and Crump, went to the house of Mrs. Wilson, where they remained that night. Some three hours afterward, about mid night, several shots were heard in the lirection of some negro houses on Mrs. near Mrs. Wilson, saw this band, either Mrs. Wilson's on their errand of murder, and from his description there could be more free. no doubt on the minds Mr. Gatlia and Mr. Crump that they were the same par-ties that had met them. They were armed, Mr. Crabtree says, with Enfield guns and accoutrements-and from the words and sentences he heard them address to each other, Mr. Crabtree was confident that they were negroes. On the following day no traces of the party could be found, and the negroes and whites were alike terribly excited over the circumstances of the preceding Catholic cometeries were beautifully decked with flowers and immortelles that night about 115 or 12 o'clock, the same party appeared at an adjoining cabin, forced the immates to come

INJUNCTION.

He Quashes Hunter's Injunction

Hunter, of the Criminal Court, grante an injunction yesterday restraining Com-missioner Beaumont and Sheriff Curry from the performance of their duty the preservation of peace to-day, but Chancellor Smith, on application last night, quashed the injunction in the fol-lowing plain and sensible indersement, which we commend to the remembrance of our citizans:

The injunction granted above and issued this day, is hereby dissolved for want of equity on the face of the bill.

A court of chancery cannot be used for the purpose of rendering sworn officers of the law, whose duty it is to preserve the wave of the law. the peace, powerless, on the ex parte affidavit of one person, that they are about to abuse their powers. Should tinese officers abuse these powers, as the bill charges they are about to do, they will be responsible to the individuals il-legally arrested, and to the laws of the land. The bill is without precedent in this or any other country, as far as my knowledge of the law goes. (Signed) WM. M. SMITH, Chancellor. November 2, 1888.

THE DESOTO BOARDING AND LIVERY STABLE -Mr. Joe Seligman, the most enterprising livery stable keeper in the city of Memphis, and who turns out one of the very fluest "rigs" to be seen on the streets, has just purchased the large and commodious DeSoto stable, No. 55 Union street, which he has fitted up in first clase style as a livery and boarding stable. It is thoroughly fireproof, and has all the latest improvements. The buggy-room is under a sepa-rate roof, and is also fire-proof, and the entire establishment is, without excep-tion, the finest in the city, and Mr. Se-ligman is prepared to board horses bet-ter and cheaper than any other livery stable keeper in the city. The old estab-lishment, No. 68 Union street, corner of Third, will be reserved as a sale stable and for the boarding transient stable Call and see Joe's two fine establish-
